

Spark- 2K24

Darsana family celebrated the Valedictory function of the year, 'Spark 2k24' on 8th. It was a combined celebration of Darsana Kala Samiti (DKS) and Atmadarsan Kala Samiti (AKS). It made into a floor for the students to open up their extravagant talents and colours immersed within. The Chief Guest was Dr K.T. Thomas, Professor of Maths, BIT, Wardha. He enlightened the guests with an address where he pointed out the space of creativity in every creature. The spark was contained of so many cultural programs like dance, comedy skit, drama, concert and so on. The 3 hours program was very enriching and enticing for all the spectators from different communities and neighbours.

FAREWELL GATHERING FOR ATMADARSAN STUDENTS

On 9th, we prepared a solemn meal for our Atmadarsan students of the batch 2023-24. We took that opportunity to express our hospitality towards them and we honoured each of the students. They were so happy and extended their gratitude and joy they experienced in Darsana.

ST. CHAVARA JAYANTI

Feb 10th was a great day for all the CMIs and CMC communities for we celebrated the Birth Anniversary of the founder St. Kuriakose Elias Chavara. We started our celebrations with the Holy Mass. We had some celebrations afterwards including the prayer service on the previous day.

SECOND SEMESTER EXAMS

Darsanites are in the thrill of the Second Semester exams. The exams of the 2nd year students have already commenced on 22nd of this month. Their Comprehensive Viva Voce and Written will be held by mid-March. Juniors will have exams in the first weeks of the month of March.

ASH MONDAY (LENT BEGINS)

Every Lenten season will bring us the hope of being resurrected after its end. On 11th, The Ash Monday was celebrated here in a solemn way and in its spirit. The Holy Mass was offered in the Chavara Auditorium in the evening along with the Pavitra Parivar and the nearby communities. Fr. Thomas was the main celebrant and his homily was based on the true spirit of the Season of Lent. It was a great invitation for the community to be closer to the passion of the Lord.

COURTESY VISIT BY HIS EXCELLENCY

His Excellency, Mar Remigiose Inchananiyil, the Bishop of Thamarassery had come over here to visit the Eucharistic community in Sawangi. He offered Holy Mass for the community on 26th Monday. So many faithful were present here for the Mass including the laity from the parish. It was followed by a gathering for all where we welcomed him to our midst. We had a good time with him.

AFFILIATION TO THE DVK

Our most awaited dream got true, Darsana Institute of Philosophy got affiliated to Dharmaram Vidya Kshetram, Bengaluru. It was officially signed and informed from the Holy See on 20th of this month. We will have a formal declaration on 7th March in the Chavara Auditorium.

DARSANA SAMAJ KALYAN SAMITI

The auspices of Darsana Samaj Kalyan Samiti are at the peak of its end of this Academic year. The brothers are actively engaged in the teaching ministry. We also rendered our service in a village called Gitti Gadhan by being the volunteers of a medical campaign organized by the SJB Sisters in Wardha.
